It is with regret that I have learned of your decision to resign from the Agency after almost thirteen years of service. Your very excellent record speaks for itself, and you can take just pride in many fine accomplishments.

Your service with the Central Intelligence Agency has been in a most significant period, including the establishment of the Agency by the Congress of the United States. During your tenure you have guided and nurtured many ideas and plans through their development stage to fruition. The record eloquently attests to your personal qualifications as an effective and imaginative administrator.

I extend my sincere appreciation for your accomplishments and my warmest wishes for continued success in your new position.

Sincerely,

SIGNED

Allen W. Dulles
